What is a periodical? A periodical is a magazine, journal, newspaper, or similar item.

Does the Library own all periodicals? No, it does not.

Is there a list of all the Library’s periodicals? Yes. The best list of the Library’s periodical subscriptions is the online Periodical List search. It identifies whether a periodical is available in print at the Library or electronically through a database/vendor. The search page is accessible directly at http://atoz.ebsco.com/Search.asp?id=tsusm or through the Library homepage.

Comparative Literature Studies is available as a Print subscription and is also available as a Full Text/Electronic journal.

- Not every journal is available in both Print/ Microfiche/ Microfilm and electronically.

Example entry from the Periodical List search:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>COMPARATIVE LITERATURE STUDIES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Project Muse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ISSN: 0010-4132</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Print Holdings displays if the journal is available as a bound periodical in the Library. Some journals may also be available on Microfiche or Microfilm.
- The Print Holdings shows that bound/paper copies of the journal starting with vol. 6 & continuing to the present are available.
- PN 851.C63 is the call number.
- Open dashes (v.6- ) (1969- ) indicate the Library has a current subscription in this format.

- The journal may be available electronically through various databases/vendors.
- This journal is available through the database Academic Search Complete from 2003-.
- The word EMBARGO means the publisher of the journal and the database Academic Search have an agreement that the journal will not have full text availability for the time period specified (in the example above it is the most current 6 months).
